GOOD EATING

MARKET BASKET

Dainty desserts

Galaxy's single-serve desserts make a nice impression. The pretty packaging holds lovely miniature versions of delectable pies and tarts. Our favorites were the creamy chocolate mousse cake, pecan tart and chocolate Grand Marnier cheesecake. The Key lime tart and lemon tart were a bit heavier on the crust than we like, but they still boasted good, sweet-tangy flavors. Each dessert costs about $4 at Whole Foods Markets.
